

Back From the Dead. Mrs. John Micros of 121 E. 88th St. touches face of her son, Otto, almost unbelievably as she meets him at LaGuardia Field on arrival from Europe. Left behind with grandmother in Germany when Mrs. Micros came to America, boy went into German army and was reported dead. Instead, he was Russian prisoner. He'll now make his home in America.